ENGLAND BACKS UP AMERICA ON NAVAL RATIO

Secretary Hughes, Balfour and Kato Confer on 5-5-3 Plan as Suggested

SITUATION CLEARER

Japan Wishes to Save Mutsu, While United States Anxious to Retain the Colorado.

Washington, Nov. 22.—There will be no compromise of the 5-5-3 ratio of capital ships, as proposed in the American naval limitation plan for the United States, Great Britain and Japan.

This was assured today when Great Britain seconded the emphatic stand taken by the United States, in the face of Japan's plea for a greater allowance of capital ships, that the only way to stop the mad race for naval supremacy is to stop building warships and to adhere to the existing relation of naval strength.

Great Britain, following a conference between Secretary Hughes and Mr. Balfour, let it be known that she will support the Hughes proposal to retain the existing ship ratio of the three naval powers unreservedly. Heretofore Great Britain accepted the American limitation in principle. Now she accepts it in principle and fact, in so far as the prime basis of the proposal is concerned, the retention of the status quo as to the capital ship strength of the respective naval powers.

Mr. Hughes has also conferred on the subject with Admiral Baron Kato, of Japan, who asked, on behalf of his government, that Japan be granted a little more than 60 per cent. of battleship power in the limitation program. This conference is said to have further cleared the atmosphere regarding the American program, from a Japanese standpoint, and to have made assurance doubly sure that there will be a satisfactory agreement reached on reduction of naval armaments.

There is a suggestion, however, that some concession may be made which might change the reduction plan with respect to capital ships without altering the ratio. Japan's suggestion that she be allotted a little more than 60 per cent. is said to be based primarily upon her desire to save the new dreadnaught Mutsu, now nearing completion. But if Japan gets the Mutsu the United States will be permitted under the revised plan to keep the new Colorado, 32,600 ton ship, with eight 18 inch guns, England, under such an arrangement, would be accorded additional capitalship power now scheduled for the scrap heap. Thus would the 5-5-3 ratio be maintained, but each of the powers would have a little more naval strength.

Even such a concession is regarded in American quarters as in violation of the principle of putting an end to naval building which underlies the Hughes limitation plan.

INDICT SEVEN

Seven persons were indicted yesterday at Fairfax court house, Fairfax, Va., by the grand jury, a true bill being returned in each instance, charging housebreaking and burglary at night, in connection with the theft of imported wines and whiskies valued at $300,000 from the country estate of Joseph E. Leiter, on the Leesburg turnpike, three miles from the Chain bridge.

Those indicted described themselves as William Cady, 27 years old, 512 K street northwest; Frank R. Cady, 29 years old, 2505 Pennsylvania Ave. northwest; John Warring, 25 years old, 2611 K street northwest; Leo Paul Connors, 25 years old, 1423 Meridan street northwest; Leroy Bradley, 24 years old; Earl Blundon, 26 years old, and Earl Fanning, 21 years old, all of Georgetown.

Following the indictment Detectives Scrivener, Kelly, Cox and Jett and agents of the Morgan Bradford Detective agency arrested Leo Connors at Dupont circle, Washington, who is held at the Third precinct police station for the Virginia authorities. The police, armed with warrants for Bradley, Blundon and Fanning, expect to take the trio into custody today.

The Board of Directors of the Y. M. C. A., will hold a meeting in the Chamber of Commerce rooms tonight at 8 o'clock.

Do Not Forget Your HOME HOSPITAL on Thanksgiving Day! Remember that the Members of the Board will gladly welcome you with any contribution you may care to make big or little! They will receive on Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, 24th inst., from 10 a. m.

WASHINGTON DAY BY DAY

(From Our Special Correspondent)

Washington, Nov. 22.—Postmaster General Hays announced today that an examination will be held on December 20, 1921, for the position of postmaster at Alexandria. Inquiry today at the postoffice department by the Gazette correspondent developed the fact that not a single applicant to date has filed his application for this office. It is expected, however, that with the announcement of the date of the examination, there will be several who will enter the race. The term of Dr. William Smith, the present postmaster does not expire until January 24, 1922, but as the office pays $3,300 a year, it is anticipated that there will be a scramble among "deserving Republicans" for the job. Neither Representative Bascom Slemp, nor Joseph L. Cupper, Republican state chairman, has indicated whom they will indorse for the postmastership at Alexandria.

To be a candidate for the office, the applicant must be a citizen of the United States and must actually reside within the delivery of the office for which the application is made. He must have been a resident of Alexandria at least two years next preceding the date of the examination. The examination for postmaster will take place in the postoffice building in Alexandria, and those desiring to enter the contest should apply at once to the U. S. Civil Service Commission for form 2241 or at the Alexandria postoffice.

Edmund W. Starling, the straight and stalwart assistant secret service chief at the White House, is now a real criss-cross-my-heart Colonel—and a genuine Kentucky kind plus.

"Big Bill," as he is best known, whose huge form has been seen towering on the running board of the automobiles of Presidents Wilson and Harding in this country and Europe during the past eight years, received today official notification from Gov. Edward P. Morrow, of Kentucky, of his appointment to his staff.

Colonel Starling was born in Hopkinsville, Ky., the son of Col. E. A. Starling, who served with distinction in one of the Kentucky regiments during the War Between the States. On a recent trip to Kentucky in pursuit of the festive golf ball and bigger game, Starling encountered Governor Morrow on the links and won from him a match. Right away the governor promised to adorn and dignify his staff by the addition of the secret service chief. The answer came today.

Far back in an inconspicuous seat in the arms conference yesterday sat Robert Lansing, one-time secretary of state and later a delegate to the Versailles peace conference.

Mr. Lansing followed the speech of Premier Briand closely, but as soon as the speech was over, he left the hall, unnoticed by more than a few persons. Lansing is now acting as an adviser to the Chinese delegation.

M. Briand's statement before the arms conference yesterday that France could do no more toward demobolizing her army than is being done probably settled once and for all the question of what the conference, of course, could do nothing in view of Briand's statement that France cannot possibly lay down her arms in view of the German and Russian menace.

It is still regarded as probable that the conference will take some action on the use of poison gas, liquid fire, submarine attacks on merchant vessels and airplane attacks on undefended places, but there will be nothing done to limit the armies of the nations attending the conference. However, it was never hoped that anything could be done on this subject and there will be no disappointment whatever over that fact.

It is government realizes as well as any other the impossibility of limiting land armaments when Europe is in her present chaotic state and it is believed to be the idea of the American delegates that the whole problem of land armament should be left to be taken up at another conference to be held, possibly, a year from now.

OLD FOLKS CONCERT

The choir of St. Paul's church has been rehearsing for some weeks in preparation for their Old Folks Concert which will be given at the Norton Memorial Hall one week from tonight, resuming their yearly concerts which were interrupted by the war. These concerts always attracted large audiences of the music loving public of Alexandria. Tickets can be secured from the members of the choir and at the drug stores.

Those wishing to reserve tables for the card party on Monday, November 29, in Lee Camp Hall, under the auspices of the Auxiliary Board to the Alexandria Hospital, are requested to call Mrs. Lawrence Perry and she will reserve same for you.

SENATORS NEAR FIST BRAWL IN CHAMBER

Watson and Williams in Heated Passage Over Henry Ford Record

ATTACKS FORD'S SON

Newberry Contest Finally Shelved and Revenue Bill Report Given Right of Way.

Washington, Nov. 22.—The Ford-Newberry Senatorial election contest in Michigan was laid aside by the Senate last night, probably not to come formally before the body again for several weeks.

After a day of discussion, in which Henry Ford, who is contesting the seating of Senator Newberry, was both denounced and defended, and which was enlivened by a heated tilt between Senators Williams, of Mississippi, and Watson, of Georgia, Democrats, the election controversy was side-tracked to make way for the conference report on the Revenue bill.

No agreement as to a date for a vote was reached, but the understanding developed that little further consideration would be given the case until late in December. By that time, Senator Pomerene, of Ohio, who is leading the fight against seating Mr. Newberry, and King, of Utah, both Democrats, expect to be back from the trip to Haiti, and Santo Domingo, who are a special committee to make an investigation of naval administration of the island republics.

The clash between Senators Williams and Watson developed when the latter attacked Mr. Ford and declared that "left over Wilsonites" in the Senate were seeking to retire Mr. Newberry because he had opposed the League of Nations.

Mr. Williams said he regarded Mr. Ford as "so far superior in altruism, in world sense and in world vision to the Senator from Georgia (Mr. Watson) and myself that I can hardly fine words to express it." He was interrupted by Mr. Watson, who declared he had not asked a "clean bill of health" from Mr. Williams, and added:

"I stated that the War Department records show that in various items paid to Henry Ford he was paid for materials never delivered. one item being for tractors and the amount was $5,000,000; that he kept his son out of war when the sons of Newberry were in the war."

Mr. Watson also charged that Mr. Ford had assessed his employes, "blackmailed" them, he said, for $50,000 for his "expense account." Mr. Williams denied that Mr. Ford had ever done such a thing and added:

"I did not approve of Mr. Ford's course during the war, when the Senator from Georgia was running with him, when they both were trying to make peace for a common enemy"—

"When the Senator states that, he states what is not true," shouted Senator Watson.

Mr. Williams inquired which part of his statement was not true and when informed continued:

"I take back that part of it in which I said he was running with Henry Ford, but I do not take back the part of it which I said he was running against his country."

Mr. Williams attempted to continue, but Mr. Watson was shouting, "It's false." Other Senators were seeking recognition from the Chair, and Senator Heflin, Democrat, Alabama, who had held the floor when the exchanges began, was vainly trying to make himself heard above the many voices and the pounding of the gavel by the Vice-President.

Mr. Watson and Mr. Williams, with two desks between them, stood glaring at each other when order was restored. Mr. Williams, without another word, picked up his hat and walked out of the chamber.

Entertain For Mrs. Strauss

The Allison W. C. T. U. met in social session last night at the home of Mrs. George Pettit, 316 South Fairfax street, and celebrated the first anniversary of the presidency of Mrs. C. A. Strauss. The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion and a very beautiful and impressive program was rendered by the members of the organization. Misses Lillian Downey and Verna Lovett entertained with a vocal duet, "Let the Rest of the World Go By." Mrs. Strauss sang a solo, "Lead Kindly Light," and Miss Verna Lovett then rendered a solo, "Held in the Hands of a Baby." A beautiful boquet of rose buds was presented to Mrs. Strauss by Miss Slayton, on behalf of the Union, for faithful and efficient services rendered during the past year. Refreshments were then served by the hostess.

IVAKOTA FARM

By "The Woman About Town"

The Woman About Town made a pilgrimage the other day and found,—not a land flowing with milk and honey,—but acres and acres of Fairfax County's best turned into a play ground and school and home for the children of Virginia,—a home where each child has a quart of milk a day, fresh eggs, and vegetables grown right on their own farm.

The afternoon train will take you to Clifton any day and it is not a great walk along good roads to Ivakota Farm. The road winds over hills and between deep banks, turning in between stone posts that mark the boundary of the farm. Around the rim of a great bowl, where some day the white buildings and the green pine trees will be mirrored in an artificial lake, are grouped the farm buildings and dormitories.

The Woman About Town had heard of Children's Homes before and was inclined to be sceptical when she drove into the yard. She expected to find an institutional atmosphere,—a combination of rigid discipline, disinfectants and the smell of stale cooking. What she found when she arrived unanounced, was a simple country home set in a flower garden, presided over by a quiet, sweet voiced woman, who came to meet the visitor with a child tugging at each hand. Inside the house the feeling of home grew stronger; the lamps were being lighted and a heavenly smell of supper was in the air. In the dining room plates and mugs were being laid at small tables and on each table was a bunch of flowers from the garden. Upstairs the older girls were undressing the babies, bathing them and tucking them into small white beds. The Woman About Town was horribly disappointed. Where was the material for a sob story? This might have been anybody's home,—this glow of soft lamplight and the disorder of little clothes.

"Have you seen the baby chickens" asked that quiet voice which seemed the reason and explanation for the tone of the whole house. Following her crisp white skirts, The Woman About Town received a third shock, for who ever heard of baby chicks in the country, in November? "This is the baby chicks' house," explained the Matron; "This is the way their drinking water is kept warm; here is the big lamp that heats their house at night." And there at the visitor's feet were dozens of baby chicks, scratching in the straw litter for their supper and peeping contentedly to themselves. In the next house were Leghorn pullets, smooth and white in their new feathers, ready to keep up the egg supply through the cold winter months.

Over in the big barn there were eighteen cows,—registered and tuberculin tested. There is a quart of milk to drink for everybody on the farm, and milk for cooking and buttermaking. The little stone dairy is sweet and clean and great shining pans of milk stand ready for the separator and the churn.

There are eight Alexandria children in Ivakota who have been there for months. Just lately, four more children were added to the number. Their mother is an Alexandria woman, known by a great many of the townspeople. She is a widow and when tuberculosis developed, there was no one to take care of the children. The mother is in a sanitarium, receiving the proper treatment, while the children who would have been a care to the city, are at the home in Ivakota,—building up strong little bodies, forgetting in healthy play the bad times that have gone before.

The Woman About Town has a suggestion to offer. If you want to make your own Thanksgiving one hundred per cent better than it has ever been before, remember the children,—Alexandria's Own, if you will,—when you prepare for your own feast. The school children are remembering the little ones at Ivakota. With the sanction of the school board, they are bringing in their dimes and pennies and gifts of food. Tomorrow morning the platform in each schoolroom will be heaped with good things for the Home. But is this enough? Will you be satisfied if you have not had a part in this giving? Will your own Thanksgiving not be happier if you help brighten the day for these little ones from your own city,—your neighbor's child?

The day is past when we could say, "Am I my brother's keeper?" We have learned the Brotherhood of Man beyond any question or doubt and we dare not disregard it. Send a dollar or an offering of food for the children at Ivakota, to the Anne Lee Memorial Home, on North Fairfax street. It will be received gladly and sent onto the home for the use of our own city's children.

The regular meeting of Sarepta Lodge, No. 46, I. O. O. F., will be held in Odd Fellows' Hall, North Columbus street, tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. Visiting Odd Fellows are cordially invited to attend.

OEHLERT TRIAL SET FOR NOV. 30 AT FAIRFAX

Date Decided Upon By Judge Brent Yesterday Afternoon

TWO TRUE BILLS

Richard E. Stuart Indicted as an Accessory Befor the Fact and Trial Set For December 2.

William H. Oehlert yesterday afternoon was indicted by a grand jury at Fairfax Courthouse, Judge S. G. Brent presiding, for the fatal shooting of Henry Briscoe. The same jury also indicted Richard E. Stuart as an accessory before the fact. It was nearing 3 o'clock when the jury completed its deliberations. Among the witnesses summoned before the jury were a number of Alexandrians.

The court fixed upon November 30 as the date for the trial of Oehlert Oehlert will be represented by Attorney Edmund Burke.

The court fixed upon December 2 as the date for the trial of Stuart. It will be alleged that the pistol used by Oehlert was the property of Stuart.

Mrs. Briscoe, wife of the slain man, was present in court yesterday when the grand jury returned the indictment and it is understood that she expects to attend the trial.

The shooting of Briscoe took place the night of October 15 on the Camp Humphreys road in Fairfax county about three miles south of Alexandria. Immediately following the shooting Briscoe was brought to the Alexandria Hospital and he died the next day.

Unit Organized

Meeting of Woman's National Foundation At Residence of Mrs. G. E. Warfield

A unit of the Woman's National Foundation was organized Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Geo. E. Warfield, who is one of the organization chairman for this city. The message from the President of the Woman's National Foundation was made by the chairman and there was an enthusiastic response to the call for members. Miss Helen Norris Cummings, state director, was present, and after making a few remarks on the aims and objects of the organization she stated that in the near fuutre, at her invitation, Mrs. C. C. Calhoun, National President, will visit Alexandria, and address the several units.

Mrs. George E. Warfield is chairman of this unit, with Mrs. George Buddin secretary, and Mrs. David Hulfish, treasurer.

POLICE COURT

An automobile driven by James Beach Saturday night collided with a wagon of Arthur Thompson while on upper King street. Mr. Beach was cited to appear by Policeman C. A. Padgett and the case was dismissed in the police court today.

A white man arrested by Policeman Bell for being drunk was told to "Go and sin no more."

A white man arrested by Policeman L. Padgett, charged with failing to provide proper support for his family was given a suspended sentence of six months. In other words the court granted him his liberty with the distinct understanding that henceforth he would have to provide support or be arrested and given six months.

Held For Grand Jury

Abraham Fortune Charged With Violating Prohibition Law

When the case of Abraham Fortune was called for trial in the police court today the accused waived the formality of a preliminary hearing and was held for the action of the grand jury. Fortune was charged with a violation of the prohibition law. A young woman giving the name of Grace Brady, who was taken in custody at the same time, was acquitted. Attorney Charles Henry Smith appeared for both parties.

Fortune's wife appeared against him to prosecute another charge which the court dismissed, holding there no evidence.

In a raid by the police yesterday at the place where Fortune is alleged to have rented at the rate of $240 a year the police captured a big still, a small quantity of corn liquor, and found other accessories.

The place is known as 115 South Union street. The four barrels of mash were too much for the police and the contents were destroyed by sprinkling a liberal quantity of salt in each barrel. The court fixed Fortune's bond at $500 and he expects to furnish bond today.

VIRGINIA NEWS PARAGRAPHED

Lynchburg.—Walker Pettyjohn, C. G. Craddock, Jr., Ernest Williams, James T. Noell, Jr., and P. B. Winfree, have been named a committee from the Y. M. C. A. to plan the spending of the fund of $125,000 raised here recently for the enlargement of the association work. The committee will also cooperate with the city government in selecting the route and building the vehicular approach to the association's island park in the James River.

Danville.—There is little chance of the early resumption of the Franklin and Pittsylvania Railway recently thrown into the hands of a receiver, and which suspended. The government is now accepting bids for the delivery of mail along the line traversed by the road between Gretna and Rocky Mount. It is practically certain that the Southern will not seek the purchase of the road, this being gleaned from talks with local headquarters officials. While travel on the Southern system is showing a monthly decrease freight shipments are showing greater weekly activity. Motor-borne tourist traffic is considered partly responsible for the decrease in travel.

Winchester.—County officers were today reported to be on the trail of one or more robbers, who broke into general stores and postoffice at Dehaven and Gainesboro, this county, early yesterday. The former is conducted by J. W. Dehaven and the latter by Mrs. A. C. Moore. The doors were said to have been "jimmied," and most of the loss consisted of merchandise, mainly foodstuffs.

Lynchburg.—The Brethren Church, located in what was formerly a brick residence here in Wadsworth street, was dedicated today, the pastor, Elder I. N. H. Beahm, of Nokesville, being assisted by Elders C. D. Hylton, of Roanoke, and U. H. Campbell, of Nokesville, in the dedicatory service. Elder Hylton will hold services there each night during this week.

Winchester.—Robert Y. Conrad Post, American Legion, has closed a deal for purchase of a large brick building on North Main street for $30,000, and L. Marshall Baker, owner, deducted $10,000 from the purchase price, it was announced last night. The post is ready to make an initial payment of $5,000, and the rest is to be financed among members of the legion here. W. A. Baker was re-elected post commander. Three troops of Boy Scouts will be permitted to use the building and equipment, as heretofore.

Winchester.—The bottom of the turkey market all but fell out during the last few days, when the weather was abnormaliy warm, and dealing was at a stand still. Buyers said they had more of the fowls on hand than they could dispose of. The last quotation offered was 35 cents for live turkeys, which, it was said, would be equivalent to a retail price of 50 cents for dressed or drawn turkeys. With the prospect of colder weather the first of this week, however, dealers said they expected the market to become active again. Doubt was expressed whether the top price of 40 cents would be reached before Thanksgiving. Most of the fowls from this section have been shipped alive.

Danville.—An ordinance adopted by the city council a few days ago, under the terms of which all transfer car drivers must give a bond of $500, has been signed by Mayor Wooding, and be effective Monday. The ordinance was enacted with a view to rectifying a certain vicious condition complained of by the police.

Lynchburg.—O. B. Barker, president of the Virginia Baptist Hospital association, who made report to the general association at Portsmouth last week, has stated here that it is not expected that the work on the hospital will be started before next summer.

High School Team Goes To Charlottesville

Tomorrow morning the High School foot ball team with a number of supporters will leave for Charlottesville where Alexandria and Charlottesville High Schools will meet on Lambeth field at the University of Virginia to contest the eastern championship of the State. The game will begin promptly at three o'clock and the Alexandria team will leave for home on the train that leaves Charlottesville about seven o'clock. The winner of this game will play Roanoke, who is the western champion by virtue of having defeated the team of Bristol Saturday by the score of 53 to 7. Alexandria boys are in the best of condition and if Charlottesville is not defeated many of the fans will be much surprised. Charlottesville, however, has nearly a clean record for the season and Alexandria is anticipating one of the greatest battles of the season. A large number of the High School students will be present tomorrow morning when the boys leave Union Station at 9:17 o'clock.

BRIAND'S PLEA IS SETBACK TO ARMY QUESTION

Reduction in Land Forces Referred to Committee Where it May Remain

MORAL SUPPORT

Washington, Nov. 22.—Premier Aristide Briand made his supreme oratorical effort toward justifying France's position on land armament before the third open session of the Conference on Limitation of Armament today.

After his dramatic speech, the question was referred to committee, where it may remain indefinitely, but he received at least something of the moral support he asked for.

A second outstanding feature of the day was the signing of the first definite agreement of the Conference, by which all the eight powers particiating bind themselves to respect the territorial and administrative integrity of China and afford her free opportunity for development. Four principles to this effect were enunciated.

It was announced that the British delegates hope that a solution of the Pacific problem will lead to abandonment of the Anglo-Japanese Alliance by producing a tripartite agreement with the United States participating.

Great Britain's firm stand with the United States on the five-five-three naval program caused Japan to waver, and after a conference between Secretary Hughes, Mr. Balfour and Admiral Kato, it was stated progress had been made on this point.

Washington, Nov. 22.—In a secret session of the Committee on Pacific and Far Eastern Questions, of the Conference on the Limitation of Armament, this afternoon, one step farther in Pacific problems was taken. Having received the Chinese 10 points and having heard the views of the leaders of the several delegations on the subject raised by the submission of those points, the Conference laid the foundation for specific action on the various phases of the Chinese situation.

The committee adopted four glowing but somewhat vague rules, in which all the nations represented in the Conference, except of course China, engage to respect China's integrity, to help her to stable government, to maintain the open door and to refrain from taking advantage of present conditions to grab privileges Elihu Root, formulated the original draft of the rules, the first definite agreement to come out of the Conference. It was amended before acceptance.

Following adoption of the rules there came from high British sources animated discussion of the Anglo-Japanese pact, with many references to the Lloyd George speech in Commons on August 17, in which the stand was taken that, on the one hand, it is the primary policy of Great Britain to maintain the friendliest relations with the United States and that, on the other hand, Japan lived faithfully up to her treaty obligations during the war, and gave great aid to her ally, Great Britain, and the latter now must play the part of a gentleman.

With her blood relation, the United States, at one elbow and her in-law, Japan, at the other, Great Britain earnestly prays that they will love each other and not compel her to a choice between them. Members of the British delegation today again voiced the hope that an agreement—not a treaty, they explained,—would result from this Conference that would cause the Anglo—Japanese pact to die an easy and peaceful death. They think that perhaps the four rules adopted today may prove the foundation for such an agreement, and suggested that not alone Great Britain, Japan and the United States might be in it, but China and perhaps other nations, too.

Exactly how wide is the scope of those four rules it is difficult to say.

They are as explicit and bind the nations, including Japan, as conclusively as could be imagined for the protection of China in the future. But it is not clear what they mean for China, so far as the rectification of past oppressions is concerned. Probably the members of the Conference are not clear. The rules represent some measure—how much cannot be stated—of compromise, And an influential Japanese delegate, asked last night to explain the meaning of some of the rules, suggested that there might be differences in interpretation.

Under the auspices of the King's Daughters of Woodlawn, Fairfax Co., a dinner will be Thanksgiving Day from noon till 6 p. m., at the Friends' meeting house on the Camp Humphreys road. It is announced that home cooking will be a feature.

ANNE LEE MEMORIAL HOME

The Anne Lee Memorial Home of the Aged is named for the mother of Robert E. Lee, and we doubt if any tribute could be paid to his hallowed memory or that of his revered mother, that would be more grateful to the Confederate chieftain were he still on earth.

The first memorial erected by women in the South to one of their own number was to the mother of Washington; the second could find no more appropriate object than the mother of Robert E. Lee.

We give else where in today's paper a sketch of the Anne Lee Memorial Home of the Aged.

It is veritably a home for gentlewomen on whom the rude hand of time has been laid heavily, and all of whose loved ones have gone before. But in the calm and restful atmosphere that pervades the Anne Lee Home, surrounded by loving care, with every want anticipated, with only kindly words and tender solicitude for their welfare—these good ladies are indeed to be congratulated on the fortunate allotment of their declining years.

As is stated in the sketch alluded to, appearing in this issue of the Gazette, the Home is sustained for the present by voluntary contributions from the people of Alexandria. Several of the grocers, the dairymen, the dry goods stores, the meat and vegetable dealers, respond to the management with generous donations of their stocks; but the number should be materially augmented.

There is no merchant in Alexandria, whatever be his line of merchandise, that should not esteem it a privilege to aid the worthy ladies on the board of management by regular contributions of supplies. Furthermore, there is no citizen, whatever may be his engagements in other directions, who should not consider it his duty to set aside a regular sum for this noble institution. The self-sacrificing women who have built up this Memorial Home from nothing to its present generous proportions should certainly receive the support of the community.

Some of our citizens make it a point to give fifty cents every month; some, a dollar; while others, blessed with this world's goods in more ample endowment, give larger sums; and all are happy in the knowledge that they are dispelling the clouds and lending sunshine to the bleaker years of life, when, at best, the shadows are lengthening all too swiftly.

Attention has already been directed to the home-like atmosphere prevailing in the Anne Lee Memorial. The rooms are cozy, cheerful, and furnished with all the comforts of life, while the gentle souls who inhabit them have added a thousand-and-one little mementoes of a by-gone time and photographs of loved ones—imparting that touch of the eternal feminine which is almost the best gift of God to man.

These kindly-faced women, these silver-haired old ladies, might indeed, be our own mothers. Of a verity, each of them has been some one's venerated mother; some one's beloved wife; some one's cherished sister; or, yet further back, some one's daughter, in a long-vanished time, when life beckoned fondly to youth and shed its roseate hues of hope and love and laughter as the happy hours sped on.

And now—is it the evening air of this life or the morning air of the next, that fans their tired faces and soothes their slumbers? Who shall say? But of one thing we are sure: their barques are moored in a haven of rest and peace, not to be disturbed by wind or current again, till they sail on a last voyage to those shining shores of the farther side, where the dim-remembered faces that have vanished with the years shall greet them lovingly again in a blessed and tearless eternity.

IVAKOTA FARM

The Gazette's young lady reporter has made a trip to Ivakota Farm, that wonderful piece of land near Alexandria of which the chief crop is happiness and healthy bodies for little tots, who lack a mother and a home! Who was it, born in a manger, lo! these many centuries ago, while the angels above sang Hosanna—Who gathered—the little ones about Him, and blessed and caressed them?

Our "Young Woman About Town" has woven a very pretty story about this wonderland at Ivakota Farm. Read it in today's "Gazette." Read it and heed it—good Sir or Madam—especially the last paragraph, that your sleep may be sweeter and sounder next Thursday night. The happy children at Ivakota Farm on that day—are they not "the least of these" of whom the Master spoke?

With the pleasant vision of their happy faces, the memory of the music of their childish laughter—to which you contributed, may be,—so be it you have these blessed dreams—let the mad world wag as it will—it cannot disturb your slumbers on Thanksgiving night!

Three Killed In Auto When Struck By Train

Cumberland, Md., Nov. 21.—Baltimore and Ohio express train No. 1, New York to St. Louis, struck an automobile at a crossing at Keyser, W. Va., 22 miles west of here, at 9 o'clock last night, killing the three occupants. Aristole Steorts, Lloyd Douglas and Muriel Decker.

Steorts accompanied by Miss Decker, had gone to the Douglas home to bring Mr. Douglas to the station, where he intended to board eastbound train No. 12 for Baltimore. Douglas was connected with the Baltimore and Ohio service, his duties causing him to travel considerably.

It is not known how the accident occurred, but it is thought Steorts attempted to beat the approaching train across. The automobile was carried some distance up the track and wrecked. Douglas and Miss Decker were dead when picked up and Steorts lived but a few moments

Navy Wage Award Up In Congress

The wage award handed down by the Navy Department on September 16th, last, reducing the weekly earnings of the machinists employed at the Naval Torpedo Station from $44.88 to $29.20 has caused such wide spread dissatisfaction that they have prevailed upon Senator France, of Maryland, and Congressman Hull, of Iowa, to introduce legislation in both houses of congress dealing with the subject in the hope that their conditions and wages may receive the proper consideration. The present law governing wage adjustments is the act of July 16th, 1862, which reads as follows:

"That the hours of labor and the rates of pay of the employees in the navy yards shall conform, as nearly as is consistent with the public interest, with those of private establishments in the immediate vicinity of the respective yards, to be determined by the commandants of the navy yards, subject to the approval and revision of the secretary of the navy."

It is very obvious to anyone that is interested in the welfare of the employees that this law compells the wages of the skilled machinists and other crafts to be determined and adjusted to conform to those of private employers who have in many cases taken advantage of times of industrial depression to lower the wages and working conditions far beyond a point consistent with the American standard of living. It is generally conceded that the government should and ought to be a model employer of labor, rather than to be forced to pay low wages in conformity with an antiquated law that should have long since been replaced by legislation more consistent with a standard of living, that would enable the employees to live in health and decency.

The present administration appears to be committed to the antiquated theory, that the way to restore prosperity is to reduce the wages of the workers (and incidentally their standards of living.) This will in turn result in less demand for goods in the retail market, which will force the merchants to lower the prices on their commodities. Thus eventually we will have "normalcy." We hope however, that some day the government will adopt a more sane way of determining wages rates. This much desired result can be accomplished in the early passage of the above mentioned legislation now pending action by the committee on naval affairs of the senate and the committee on labor of the house.

If private employers pay wages that do not meet the cost of living the government should not feel obliged to pursue the same course. When private employers reduce their wages to a sub-normal state they are compelling their workers to draw on their savings (if any), extend their credit, expend their reserve strength and resources all of which should be contrary to the public policy. Let us not reduce the workers to a mere subsistence level but rather to a level consistent with the American idea of sufficient wages to support a family in health and the ordinary comforts of life.

The legislation as introduced by Senator France and Congressman Hull will create a board of adjustment, which will constitute a wage board and board of appeals composed of three members, to be appointed by the president, one member to serve during his first term for a period of two years, one to serve for a period of three years, and one for a period of four years. No member of the board will receive compensation, but shall be allowed actual expenses and the board shall elect a secretary, who shall receive a salary of $3,500 per annum.

In addition to many other provisions the legislation provides that the board shall meet annually on the first day of January and establish a fair and reasonable wage to include all classes of employees of the navy yards, naval stations and arsenals. In determining the justness and reasonableness of the wage schedule the following revelant factors will be taken into consideration.

(a) The maintenance of a standard of living for the worker and his family which will insure health and decency.

(b) The relation between wages and the cost of living.

(c) The average change in per capita productivity of manufacturing industries in the United States over a period of ten years.

(d) The progress made in per capita production in manufactories in the United States since 1900 which has not already been reflected in increased wages.

(e) The training and skill required.

(f) The degree of responsibility; and

(g) Inequalities of increases in wages or of treatment, the result of previous wage orders or adjustments.

Provision has also been made for the adjustment of grievances arising over interpretations of wage awards, salary laws and other disputes arising over conditions of employment, and interpretation of laws.

Several senators and congressmen have been written to requesting their support of the measure when it comes up for discussion and many favorable replys have been received. We desire to especially mention the support given us by Senator Swanson of this commonwealth. The support of all commercial organizations, fraternal associations and other is earnestly requested in support and endorsement of this legislation and we would be pleased to send a committee to appear before any of those organizations in its behalf if they desire it. Copies of the bill will be gladly furnished by the writer to any one interested.

IN MEMORIAM

ROBEY—In sad but loving remembrance of my dear sister, NETTIE V. ROBEY, who departed this life 10 years ago today, November 22, 1911.

Days of sadness come over us,
Secret tears do often flow,
But memory keeps you ever near us,
Though you died 10 years ago.
Although we cannot clasp your hand,
Your face we cannot see,
But let this little token show,
We still remember you.

Gone but not forgotten.

MEETING TONIGHT

A special meeting of the Board of Directors of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held at the Chamber of Commerce this evening at 8 o'clock. The meeting will be a most important one following so closely the general meeting of last Thursday evening when a representative gathering of men of the city declared themselves in hearty favor of a thoroughly equipped "Y."

Some vacancies have occurred on the Board and these will doubtless be filled this evening. President Lamond feels that the Board should be made up of men thoroughly alive to the tremendous need of the community and with a burning desire to meet that need in a Christian way. He says that he believes the Association is in a position to go forward and his faith has been greatly strengthened since the meeting Thursday evening and the many words of encouragement he has received from every quarter.

Y. M. C. A. Relief Work

The Y. M. C. A., has again appropriated several thousand dollars for the education of the ex-service man. This announcemnt has just been received at the office of the local Association and Secretary Wallace has determind to use his allotment as quickly as possible.

The state office has allowed the local Association two hundred dollars to be used on the "fifty-fifty" basis. That is, any ex-service man who wishes to take a course in the Extension Division of the United Y. M. C. A. Schools, can have half of his tuition paid by the local "Y."

There is practically no limit to this proposition as the Extension Division offers nearly three hundred courses by correspondence and scarce ly a subject can be mentioned that is not included. There is no red tape connected with the offer and any ex-service man is eligible. However the offer is good for a few days only and any interested ones should call at the Y. M. C. A., office in the Westminister Building or correspond with Secretary Wallace at once.

Parisians Anxious For Briands Talk

Paris, Nov. 22.—The French public, reflecting the attitude of Paris newspapers, carrying dispatches from thier correspondents in Washington, is waiting keenly for Premier Briand's placing of France's policies before the armament conference. The greatest importance is attached to the speech he is expected to deliver tomorrow.

Briand, it is reported, will demand that the American people take some stand on the issue of insuring France against the "ever-present threat" of German attack. The French government will not seek a treaty of alliance with Washington, it is understood, but it will ask the conference, either by motion or resolution, to approve France's present land armament, "a burden she bears in the interest of civilization."

Many Pay Taxes

All Must Pay Prior To December 1 Or Penalty Will Be Added

Many persons are now paying their state taxes. The last day for the payment of such taxes is December 1. After that date a penalty of five per cent will be added. City Treasurer Thomas W. Robinson for some time past has been busily engaged in receiving state taxes.

Preparatory Services

Last evening at the First Baptist church a goodly crowd gathered in the preliminary services of the revival. The pastor Dr. Jackson was present and in charge, and much interest was manifested on the part of those present. Different organizations of the church will assist the pastor each night. This evening the deacons will help and reports will be given from the General Baptist association, recently held at Portsmouth.

Wednesday night the B. Y. P. U. will assist. Thursday night the Sunday school teachers will have part. Friday night a number of the Baraca class will speak. These services have started off well. All are invited to come and bring friends.

To make room we will sell 5000 ferns at $1.00 each, some worth $3.00 to $4.00 each.

OUTLINE WORK

The called meeting of Mary Custis Lee, 17th Virginia Regiment chapter, U. D. C., was marked by large attendance and a spirit of enthusiasm and cooperation. Plans for the winter's work were placed before the chapter and adopted by unanimous vote. The recent state conference in Richmond, with its exchange of ideas and closer association on the part of the delegates, has brought the various sections of the state into closer touch and given the local chapter a broader vision.

Tentative plans for a large social function, in the near future, were launched last night, committees appointed and program discussed. A detailed account of the proposed event will be given in a later edition of the Gazette.

BURNED TO DEATH

Rosebank, Staten Island, N. Y., Nov. 22.—A fire aboard the United States Shipping board steamer, Half Moon, resulted in the death of William H. Finnegan, third assistant engineer of the ship. A lighted cigarette, which he is supposed to have dropped on his bed clothes, is believed to have caused the fire.

This is the third of a series of misfortunes which have caused the Half Moon to be regarded as a "hoodoo ship." Only recently its chief engineer, Charles Burch, was killed in what is alleged to have been a fight over smuggled whiskey. Ernest Dure, first assistant engineer, is under arrest charged with the slaying.

In an accident a year ago William Donovan, chief engineer, was severely injured when going on board.

N. Y. Archbishop Flays Birth Control Forum

New York, Nov. 22.—Protest against the use in New York of the open forum for disseminating the idea of birth control was made in a statement issued by Archbishop Patrick J. Haynes, of the Archdiocese of New York

"Common prudence and decency," he said, "should keep such discussion within the walls of a clinic, or only for the ears of the mature and experienced."

The laws of God and man, science, public policy and human experience, he said, all were condemnatory of birth control "preached by a few irresponsible individuals without indorsement or approval, as far as I know of a reputable body of physicians or a medical society, whose province it is to advise the public on such matters."

He declared the tenets of birth control were in direct opposition to the opinion of many distinguished scientists of the world who had been making a serious study of the causes of impending deterioration of the race, which had been foreseen by well-known biologists.

The recent congress of eugenics had emphasized, he said, the necessity of protection of monogamous marriage with a limitation of divorce, more children in the families of well-to-do as a moral duty, earlier marriages, a more sheltered life for mothers and unselfish devotion to the family as a patriotic duty.

Physicians had found, he added, that successive children in a family, as well as parents, were most always stronger and healthier and that children marked for special genius were very often born after the fifth in the family.

"The voice of Theodore Roosevelt," his statement continued, "still echoes throughout the world in his strong denunciation of race suicide and the sins against the cradle; his love of family life remains one of the most whole some memories of his most noble character."

The Archbishop said he felt it a public duty to protest against open birth-control discussion and that he did so, not in a sectarian spirit, but in the broader one of the common weal.

"The Catholic Church's condemnation of birth control, except it be self control, is based," he added, "on the natural law, which is the eternal law of God applied to men and commanding the preservation of moral order and forbidding its disturbance. Therefore the church has but one possible thing to do, namely, to accept and obey the will of the Supreme Law-giver."

The first American birth-control conference was held here last week. The first public meeting was halted by the police, and Mrs. Margaret Sanger and Miss Mary Winsor, two of the speakers, were arrested, charged with disorderly conduct. They were discharged when arraigned in court the next day.

Winter Rapidly Traveling East

Chicago, Nov. 22.—Winter is right on schedule. The first day of its sway will see the Northwest "enjoying" zero weather, and the cold wave is traveling East.

Reports from Billings, Mont., when winter was still four hours away, declared that section in the grip of a heavy snowstorm and thermometer was hovering around zero. Minnesota was blanketed under from six to ten inches of snow, with zero weather. Northern Nebraska also reported the thermometer down at scratch, and that cattle herds were in danger because of the heavy early snows.

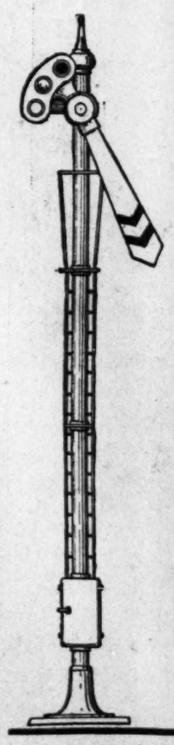
The Block Signals Are Working—



In some respects, human experience is like railroading.

Every moment of the business and social day the block signals are giving right of way to keenness and alertness—while the slow and the heavy must wait on the sidetrack for their chance to move forward.

The ability to "go through" and to "get there" depends much on the poise of body, brain and nerves that comes with correct diet and proper nourishment.

That's why so many choose Grape-Nuts for breakfast and lunch. Served with cream or milk it is completely nourishing, partly pre-digested, and it supplies the vital mineral salts so necessary to full nutrition.

Grape-Nuts has a rich, delightful flavor, is ready to serve on the instant—and is distinctly the food for mental and physical alertness and speed. At all grocers.

Anne Lee Memorial Home Of The Aged

The Anne Lee Memorial Home of the Aged began its existence some five years ago with 18 cents in the treasury and a debt of 81 dollars. Since that time it has purchased a beautiful four-story building, opposite the Chamber of Commerce, and spent some money in improvements.

The endowment fund is to be kept intact until it has attained $100,000 as put at interest, will support for the running expenses of the Home. With the exception of $300 annually from the city of Alexandria, every dollar is raised by the efforts of the Board of Governors, who receive monthly contributions from citizens and donations from merchants.

The Home is entirely non-sectarian, and the rules for admission are the same as for any church institution of similar objects. During the past five years twenty aged gentlewomen have been cared for, and there are nine in the family at present, with three applications to be acted upon.

There is a representative from each church in Alexandria, on the Honorary Board, constituted at present, as follows:

M. E. Church, South,—Mrs. J. E. Alexander.

Trinity Church,—Mrs. J. B. Fitzgerald.

St. Paul's Church,—Mrs. Frank Latham and Mrs. M. W. O'Brien.

Christ Church,—Mrs. L. C. Barley and Miss Kate Stuart.

Grace Church,—Mrs. W. C. Cunningham.

Presbyterian Church,—Mrs. D. R. Stansbury.

Lutheran Church,—Mrs. Wm. Helmuth.

Free Methodist Church,—Mrs. Butts.

Methodist Church, Del Ray,—Mrs. John Garey.

Pohick Church,—Mrs. E. W. Mellichampe.

The members of the Board of Governors are Mrs. Thomas A. Fisher, Mrs. Charles Howell. Mrs. William D. Ogden, Mrs. Jennerfer Broaddus, Mrs. Grace C. Schultz, Mrs. R. Pierpoint, Mrs. A. S. Doniphan, Mrs. Kenneth Ogden and Mrs. Strother Jones.

The Executive Board is constituted as follows:

President, Mrs. Lycurgus E. Uhler; 1st vice president, Mrs. Harley Peyton Wilson; 2d vice president, Mrs. Wm. M. Reardon; 3d vice-president, Mrs. George L. Simpson; recording secretary, Mrs. James H. Mansfield; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Windsor W. Demaine; treasurer, Mrs. Arthur Herbert. The chairman of the finance committee is Mrs. L. E. Uhler.

The treasurer of the Endowment Fund is Mr. L. Ruben.

The Home is organized under the laws of Virginia, and the following are the Honorary Presidents: Mrs. L. Wilber Reid, Mrs. C. C. Carlin, Mrs. F. G. Odenheimer and Miss Fannie Burke. The Trustees are Mr. L. Ruben, Dr. E. A. Gorman, Mr. Arthur Herbert and Mr. William Desmond.

The building which houses the Memorial is an old colonial mansion which was formerly the home of the Herbert family, and when all improvements are completed, will accommodate at least twenty-five inmates.

Some years ago the women of Alexandria, moved by a desire to commemorate the memory of the Southland's beloved chieftain, the immortal Robert E. Lee, formed an association, known as the "Ann Lee Memorial Association." Its president was Mrs. L. Wilber Reid, since president of the 17th Virginia Regiment Chapter, U. D. C. The funds accruing were placed at interest, and in 1915 the work was actively taken up, a board of governors elected, and plans matured which assumed the shape of a memorial home for the aged. The 17th Virginia Regiment Chapter under its indefatigable president, Mrs. Reid, erected a beautiful portico and entrance, and furnished a tasteful and elegant reception room. Many of the U. D. C. Chapters have generously contributed funds to the Memorial, among them being the New York Chapter, the Mary Mildred Sullivan Chapter, the Dixie Club, of New York, the Maryland Chapter, of Baltimore, the Fairfax Chapter, of Fairfax, and others. Several of the venerable inmates are widows of Confederate Veterans. All of them are gentlewomen by birth, breeding, and education. The good that is being done by the Anne Lee Memorial Home is beyond calculation. Its work is performed by the loving hands of women, who, among other manifold duties, find additional happiness themselves, in ministering to the happiness of the gentle beings whose last years are thus rendered care-free and tranquil. The two men actively identified with the management, Mr. Arthur Herbert and Mr. Leopold Ruben, are invaluable aids in all financial matters, and their advice and assistance are at all times placed without charge at the service of the ladies on the different Boards. Mrs. Lycurgus Edward Uhler, president of the Executive Board and Chairman of the Finance Committee, is untiring in her labors, and amidst her many duties in other offices of trust and distinction, always finds time to devote to her beloved Memorial Home.

It is to be hoped that in this solemn season of Thanksgiving for the mercies and blessings of Heaven, there may be a thought in every heart for the one institution in our midst that ministers to the comfort and happiness of aged women.

Rasin Whiskey Explosion

Pittsburgh, Nov. 21.—Shattering Desk Sergeant Henry Baumgratz's dream of a quiet Sunday afternoon in Central Police Court, the crash of a double explosion behind the magistrate's desk rocked the police station and sent the sergeant sprawling from his seat, a huge revolver in his startled grasp.

Police reserves, headed by Lieut. Emil Marshall, rushed through the fume-reeking court room. There was consternation among the prisoners, who, like others in the building, supposed a bomb plot had been perpetrated.

Soon, however, as a pungent and not altogether unfamiliar odor permeated the room, there dawned a realization of what had caused the commotion.

Two large demijohns of "raisin jack" whiskey, which had been placed behind the magistrate's desk following their confiscation in a raid, had expolded almost simultaneously, sending a shower of earthen fragments over the court room, splashing spirits on walls and ceiling and flooding the floor in the magistrate's platform. In the debris, after it had been swept up by the janitor, were a handful of raisins and a bit of yeast.

The evidence had been delivered at the police station for Police Commissioner James Hoban, who expressed the opinion this evening that it "certainly was strong evidence."

IN MEMORIAM

ROBEY—In sad but loving remembrance of our dear daughter and sister, NETTIE V. ROBEY, who departed this life 10 years ago today, November 22, 1911.

Today recalls sad memories,
Of a loved one gone to rest,
And those who think of her today,
Are those who loved her best.
Long days and nights she bore in pain,
To wait for cure, but all in vain,
For God alone knew what was best,
And took uor dear sister home to give her rest.
Farewell to all my loved ones dear,
I am not dead, but sleeping here,
I was yours, but Christ's alone,
He loved me best and took me home.

By her sad Mother

NEXT DOSE CALOMEL MAY SALIVATE YOU

It is Mercury, Quicksilver, Shocks Liver and Attacks Your Bones

Calomel salivation is horrible. It swells the tongue, loosens the teeth and starts rheumatism. There's no reason why a person should take sickening, salivating calomel when a few cents buys a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone—a perfect substitute for calomel. It is a pleasant vegetable liquid which will start your liver just as surely as calomel, but it doesn't make you sick and can not salivate.

Calomel is a dangerous drug, besides it may make you feel sick and nauseated tomorrow. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone instead and you will wake up feeling great. No salts necessary. Your druggist says if you don't find Dodson's Liver Tone acts better than treacherous calomel your money is waiting for you.

EDWIN W. FIELD,
Milwaukee, Wis.

"I'm convinced if I had taken Tanlac two years ago, when my troubles first began, I would have been saved a world of suffering, said Ed. W. Field, 538 Jefferson St., Milwaukee, Wis.

"My case proved that when a man's stomach goes wrong, everything goes wrong with him. The first thing I noticed out of the way was loss of appetite and next, that no matter how sparingly I ate, I was sure to have an attack of indigestion. This was two years ago and from that time on, until after I started on Tanlac, I kept going down hill at a steady rate. I finally got so I couldn't walk a couple of blocks without having to stop and rest and I was so nervous that often I sat up in a chair all night long.

"Tanlac has made a new man out of me, my stomach is as sound as a dollar and I feel fine all the time. I am a firm believer in Tanlac because I know it delivers the goods."

Skin Diseases Due To Waste Products In The Blood

For Genuine Relief Your Blood Must Be Purified.

For real, downright, harrassing discomfort, very few disorders can approach so-called skin diseases, such as eczema, tetter, boils, eruptions, scaly irritations and similar skin troubles, notwithstanding the lavish use of salves, lotions, washes and other treatments applied externally to the irritated parts.

To correct the basic trouble—waste products—the blood must be purified. Don't clog your blood. Just clean it out. Nature will do the rest. Pure, rich, red blood nourishes the body and fights off disease.

S. S. S., the standard blood purifier and system builder, is the ideal remedy for skin eruptions. The effect of S. S. S. is to rid the system of the waste products which are causing the trouble. For over 50 years S. S. S. has proven to be of unusual merit. Begin taking S. S. S. today and write for 56 page illustrated booklet, "Facts About the Blood"—free.

Personal medical advice, without charge, may also be had by sending a complete description of your case. Address Chief Medical Director, Swift Specific Co., 743 S. S. S. Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga. All good drug stores sell S. S. S.

Three Held at Rockville

Rockville, Md., Nov. 21.—John A. Ramsdell, of Eagle Pass Texas, Samuel Yzaco, of Boston, and Emmett Robinson, of Washington, are under arrest here on a charge of assaulting and robbing William Franklin, a Washington chauffeur, near Chevy Chase Lake, this county, at an early hour Thursday morning. They have been committed to jail here to await the action of the grand jury, now in session.

It is charged that the three men engaged Franklin to drive them to Chevy Chase and that at the last one of them struck the chauffeur on the back of the head with a club, knocking him from the car. The three men then, it is said, drove off. The car got stuck in the mud near near Tobytown, this county, and was abandoned, the men starting back toward Washington on foot. When they reached Rockville they were placed under arrest by Deputy Sheriffs Caywood, Gingell and Rogers. Franklin was not seriously hurt.

87 Are Picked Up at Sea

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 21.—Seventy-five men and 12 officers, the crew of the United States oiler Alameda, were obliged to abandon that vessel 90 miles off Cape Henry last night when the ship caught fire. Wireless messages from the burning ship and from the steamships Pallos and Bristol advised Hampton Roads Naval Base of the ship's plight and also that the crew had been saved.

The Alameda was bound to Norfolk to load Christmas mail for American soldiers and sailors overseas. She is a 10,000-ton steel vessel. Three naval tugs, including the Kelweden, and the Coast Guard cutter Manning were rushed to the assistance of the Alameda.

Soon after fire was discovered the crew made a heroic attempt to conquer it, but the flames spread rapidly and the decks became too hot for the men to work wihout danger of having their feet blistered. There was danger also that the ship's big fuel tank, filled with oil, would explode.

The crew took to the life boats and were at the mercy of high seas for about four hours. Answering the Alameda's calls for assistance, the steamers Bristol and Pallos sighted the signal of distress displayed by the men in the lifeboats and picked them up before going to the assistance of the burning craft.

Naval officials said last night while the fire on the Alameda is still burning, the ship would not sink and would probably reach port tomorrow in tow of naval tugs.

Tons of water were poured in the hold of the ship today by naval tugs. The Alameda is anchored about 45 miles off Cape Henry.

Belief is expressed here that when full details of the rescue are received, a thrilling maritime story will be narrated. Seamen say that with the wind blowing as it has been, a trip on the sea in lifeboats must have been a hazardous undertaking.

FIRST MINISTER TO SWEDEN APPOINTED

TO THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES.

"The Swedish government having repeatedly manifested a desire to interchange a public Minister with the United States, and having lately appointed one with that view, and other considerations concurring to render it advisable at this period to make a correspondent appointment, I nominate Jonathan Russell, of Rhode Island to be minister plenipotentiary of the U. States to Sweden.

JAMES MADISON.

Gotham Sees Foch Off

New York, Nov. 22.—New York bade Marshal Foch au revoir, sending him off on a swing about the continent that will not end until December 13, when he returns to this city to sail the next day for France.

The itinerary, announced tonight by the American Legion, his hosts on the American visit, indicated that he will travel more than 12,000 miles and visit 23 states and Canada in the 23 days allotted to the tour.

The trip will take him to the Pacific Coast by way of the northwest, and back again to Washington by a southerly route, thence into Canada and back to New York through New England. The Marshall left for Washington, whence the swing will be started in real earnest Tuesday night. He ended his visit to New York at a public reception yesterday in the Hippodrome. The big theatre was packed.

When the cheers had died away a chorus of 1,000 voices launched into the stirring strains of the "Marseillaise"—Foch and his aides in their boxes standing at stiff salute; the audience in their places standing at attention.

Hanford MacNider, national commander of the American Legion, was introduced by William F. Deegan, New York state commander, and he in turn presented Foch to the crowd.

The marshal responded briefly in French.

Martin W. Littleton then delivered a eulogy, which was punctuated by cheers at every reference to Foch's exploits.

As he left the theatre for the train that was to take him to Washington he was again cheered by a crowd outside. Another crowd was waiting at the Pennsylvania terminal.

The Marshal began the last day of his visit here by motoring to St. Patrick's cathedral for 10 o'clock mass.

At the conclusion of the mass the party then drove to Fordham university, where he received his 15th honorary degree of doctor of laws.

He next proceeded to Fordham campus, where the One Hundred and Sixty-fifth United States Infantry, that had served under him in France—now the Sixty-ninth Infantry, New York National Guard—was drawn up at full strength, and decorated two veterans—Sergt. Richard W. O'Neill, with the Congressional medal of Honor, and Sergt. Edward J. Geaney with the Distinguished Service Medal, for heroism at the Ourcq on July 30, 1918.

In the afternoon he attended a reception at the Army and Navy Club, where he met officers and ex-officers of the United States military forces, driving on then to the Plaza Hotel for the dinner tendered him by the French societies of New York.

A dance will be given Thanksgiving night at Odd Fellows' Hall by Canton Alexandria No. 1. McWilliams' Orchestra. Admission, 75 cents.

NOTICE

Notice to State Taxpayers

I am now prepared to receive the State taxes for the year 1921. The attention of taxpayers is respectfully called to the importance of paying the same prior to December 1, 1921, as on that date, a penalty of five per cent will be added to all unpaid bills, and their collection enforced as required by law.

It Would Tire an Athlete

to walk or stand in the shoes worn by the average woman. With the body thrown out of poise by high heels, every pound is carried as dead weight. And with toes cramped and the foot laced against a stiff shank so that the muscles are not free to function, the gait becomes unnatural and causes fatigue.

The flexible, natural-shaped Cantilever Shoe permits every muscle the full liberty necessary to an elastic step and perfect balance. The body is swung easily from one foot to the other, a steady momentum is maintained, and one walks gracefully and without fatigue.

The arch muscles are constantly exercised so that they afford strong support to the bones of the arch, preventing and relieving arch troubles.

Plenty of toe-room, correct heels, contribute to the comfort of Cantilevers. And they are made in styles approved by the fashion magazines for daytime service.

NATURE PROVIDES THE INGREDIENTS

Argo-Phosphate, the New Herbal Remedy Now Endorsed by Local People

If the digestive organs are not properly preforming the work which nature has assigned them, then nutrition, which is absolutely essential to the recovery of other diseased parts, will be lacking and there can be no permanent relief. When bodily nutrition is normal, the stomach digests the food, the blood absorbes and carries the nourishment to the different parts of the body, causing the varions organs to preform their functions.

Nature has provided a remedy in the ingredients of Argo-Phosphate, the new herbal stomach remedy, which is now being introduced here. It is purely vegetable and its vitalizing, corrective and reconstructive qualities are so pronounced that beneficial results are noticed from the first day. That this is true, it is only necessary to listen to the statements made daily by local people who have given Argo-Phosphate a fair trial and have been benefited thereby.

SUFFERED SEVEN LONG YEARS

Finally Relieved by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Ravenswood, W. Va.—"For seven long years I suffered from a female trouble and inflammation so that I was not able to do my housework. I consulted several doctors but none seemed to give me relief. I read in a paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound so I decided to try it, and before the first bottle was gone I found great relief so I continued using it until I had taken eight bottles. Now I am very well and can do my own housework. I can gladly recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine to suffering women."—Mrs. BERTHA LIERING, R. F. D., Ravenswood, W. Va.

The ordinary day of most housewives is a ceaseless treadmill of washing, cooking, cleaning, mending, sweeping, dusting and caring for little ones. How much harder the tasks when some derangement of the system causes headaches, backaches, bearing-down pains and nervousness. Every such woman should profit by Mrs. Liering's experience. Remember this, for over forty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been restoring health.

Talking Turkey

WHETHER it's a bird for Thanksgiving dinner or a tankful of gasoline for your motor you will get real satisfaction only through careful selection.

Volatility is important to good gasoline. It largely governs the starting speed of your motor and the richness of the mixture you have to use. For steady power that enables you to creep along in traffic or whirl up steep grades without a lot of gear shifting your motor fuel must have high flame speed and a high rate of pressure development. For economical operation gasoline must give you big mileage per gallon and burn up so completely that it leaves a minimum of carbon behind.

It needed years of refining experience and countless tests to develop a balanced gasoline to meet all these specifications. But it has been done.

"Standard" Motor Gasoline is best not in one or two respects only. Under the most rigid tests covering every feature of motor performance, "Standard" Motor Gasoline stands first.

You can easily prove this. Draw up where you see the familiar "S. O." sign. Test a tankful. Notice the "pep" and power your car has. See how easily it climbs hard hills. Keep tabs on the mileage you get. One quality wherever you buy it, and for sale everywhere.

Do you know that your motor is properly lubricated? You can eliminate any doubt by specifying POLARINE.
